

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives occasionally pause in their diverse legislative endeavors in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Carole Baras has been a licensed real estate agent since 1983, a real estate broker since 1988, and the holder of CRS, GRI, and ABR designations; and

Whereas, Carole Baras recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she was selected as the 2004 Realtor of the Year by the Saint Louis Association of Realtors; and

Whereas, a member of the Saint Louis Association of Realtors, Carole Baras also belongs to the Missouri Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors; and

Whereas, Carole Baras began her career in real estate with Coldwell Banker before moving to Re/Max in 1989; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Carole Baras earned the prestigious Re/Max Hall of Fame Award and the Business Person of the Year award, was elected as president of the South County Chamber of Commerce, received the Excel Award, and consistently claimed the Re/Max Platinum Club award; and

Whereas, Carole Baras is a relocation and buyers agent specialist who has graciously served on numerous professional organization committees; and

Whereas, Carole Baras is the loving wife of Fred Baras, loving mother of Sam and Susie Brochman, and devoted grandmother of Jessica and Casanora:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the stellar career accomplishments garnered by Carole Baras and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt congratulations upon her selection as 2004 Realtor of the Year by the Saint Louis Association of Realtors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Carole Baras, CRS, GRI, ABR.
